I got this cactus at our Lifespan volunteer recognition lunch in 2016. Last year I learned about putting it in 12 hours of dark and 12 hours of light to encourage it to bloom. It was gorgeous. This year it has enjoyed being outside on my porch in the spring, summer and fall, has been repotted twice (thanks to Nancy), and went through its annual blooming ritual again. There are baby blooms on every stem. It’s going to be amazing. Go little cactus go!!! You’ll see the photos on the website, in emails and on our facebook page.

So, why a story about a silly cactus? I was thinking about Lifespan and its journey. Since 1981 we have been working to build communities that welcome us as we age, even as our own community is itself, aging. We provide knowledge and information that enables our community to age with choice and agency over our lives. We rejoice in time spent together and grieve together as we say goodbye to those no longer with us. Many of you have wondered, how is Lifespan doing? Will we be ok? Are we changing? What’s the next step in our journey?

Lifespan is very much like my Lifespan cactus. We support, water and feed the main part of the plant to keep it strong and healthy. We “re-pot” Lifespan when necessary, giving the roots sufficient room to grow and thrive and trim branches as new ones come on board. All the time we are preparing for the season of blooming.

Sometimes it feels like we go through those periods of 12 hours of darkness as we work to figure out Lifespan’s next chapter. We are constantly looking at how the community is changing and the best ways for us to respond. And then we come out into the light and wait for the blooms. Blooms of blessings, joy and hope for the future. Here are some examples of the Lifespan blooms we are nurturing right now!

We are working with other organizations, including Jewish Family and Career Services, to build a Collaboration Network of Transportation Services for older adults that will include our MET program. We get calls for transportation services on a regular basis that we cannot meet. This coalition can allow us to be part of a network to serve additional older adults and respond more specifically to what they need. And we are making progress on an MET program in Tucker!!

We have seen an increase in participation at academy in our activity classes and technology classes. This next session we are trying “Pop Up Workshops” as a way to test new content and see what else might entice new members. Read more about these workshops on Page 3.

Technology classes continue to be popular for all of our Lifespan members. Take a look at our Annual Appeal page on Page 7. We are not only seeking your donations this year, but also looking for technology volunteers, teachers and tutors, so we can expand our technology offerings.

And finally, the board of directors has unanimously agreed to support a pilot project we are tentatively calling “Partners in Health.” This program is based on the model developed by agencies in Michigan and Massachusetts, utilizing trained volunteers to accompany older adults during their medical appointments. Read more about this program on Page 5. You might like to volunteer! Call us.

So the answer to your questions about what is the next step? We will see how the blooms develop. You can be part of that process with your donations, suggestions, and offers to volunteer. Fill out the Annual Appeal form and let us know how you will nurture the blooms of Lifespan in 2019!

Fondly,
Peggy Palmiter

10:00 AM to 11:00 AM

Spirituality Series - The Rev Julie Wright

Julie Wright, Associate Pastor at Peachtree Road United Methodist Church will be offering an eight week Spirituality series. More details about the theme and topic is coming soon, but we are thrilled to have Julie with us again this Winter.

Great Decisions – Ray Nixon

Ray has graciously agreed to lead our Great Decisions class this winter and we appreciate his commitment to Lifespan. Here are the topics that the Foreign Service Association says are on tap for Great Decisions 2019: Refugees and Immigration, The Middle East, Nuclear Negotiations, The Rise of Populism in Europe, Decoding US-China trade, Cyber Conflicts and Geopolitics, The United States and Mexico, State of the State Department and Diplomacy. The book is $25. More information is available on our website. Please add the cost of the book on your registration form under payment.

Tia Chi - Tina Rasheed

Our own Tina Rasheed will again be leading us in Tai Chi. Tina has a 26-year career as a public health researcher at the Morehouse School of Medicine and has applied her mission as a martial artist to bridge the health disparity gap by teaching self-applied health enhancement techniques such as Qigong and Tai Chi as a strategy to promote health and prevent disease. Tai Chi is a gentle exercise program that is a part of Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM). Derived from the martial arts, Tai Chi is composed of slow, deliberate movements composed of mental focus, deep breathing, and stretching which enhance physical health and emotional well-being.

11:15 AM to 12:15 PM

More Words that Moved a Nation – Richard Botters

Richard is going to continue his journey through the wisdom of our presidents. This session he will take a look at the documents, speeches, literature and music that inspired the American people during the presidential terms of Warren G. Harding to John F. Kennedy.

Tell Me A Story:
PART I: Brandt Ross: Game-Changers programs – all include contemporaneous Folk Songs:
Jan. 10th – 100th Anniversary of Armistice Day, 11/11/1918 – stories of WWI, WWII and honoring all those who served: “All gave some…. some gave All”.
Feb. 14th – Game-Changers of Baseball – “Jackie Robinson and Moe Berg”
Feb. 28th – “the Dust Bowl” – “When the sky turned black……and the land failed…”

PART II: Steve Walton has agreed to lead us in four “Tell Me A Story” sessions where you tell your story. Jan 17, 24, 31 and Feb 21st. This is your chance to tell that story you have always wanted to tell. Get your stories ready.

Line Dancing—Rose Haven

Our own Rose Haven will be bringing us line dancing again this fall. Rose Haven has been a line dance instructor since 1992. Rose is the founder and director of two award winning competition dance teams. Rose brings all that line dancing expertise to her Lifespan low-impact, low-risk line dancing class. Enjoy the music and the moves.
1:30 PM to 2:30 PM

iPhone and iPad Class—Peggy Palmiter

Our own Peggy Palmiter will be teaching about both the iPhone and the iPad. Bring your device and learn how to tame the beast. Several of our students from this session want to return and we welcome any additional folks who want to join in.

Mahjong

Want to play Mahjong? Want to learn Mahjong? Come on in and see what it’s about. This group plays the Japanese style of Mahjong.

The Ukulele Group

The Ukulele Group is still playing along!! Last session was our first try and we have the beginnings of a wonderful group. Come and join us this session. NO MUSICAL TRAINING REQUIRED, BUT LOTS OF FUN TO BE HAD! Just get yourself a soprano ukulele and a gig bag and bring it on in. You will also want to pick up an electronic tuner to keep it in tune. If you want some information, you can go to www.beginnerukuleles.com, or just google ukuleles and find lots of options for the whole kit! Finally, get The Daily Ukulele Book, by Liz and Jim Beloff – also called the “Yellow Book.”

I Remember – Rosemary Glenn and Steve Walton

The I Remember group will be meet at 1:30 pm for three sessions this winter—January 10th, February 7th and February 28th. They would also like to encourage all of the I Remember story tellers to join Steve as he hosts the Tell Me A Story session at 11:15.

Any afternoon class is included with your full session registration of $59 or $84. You can also participate weekly for $10 per week, or pay $50 for any one class for the full 8 weeks.

Pop Up Workshops

Something New!!

As you read in the front page article, we are trying something new this session. In order to offer you some additional, different and interesting topics, we are offering “Pop Up Workshops.” These are short workshops on a variety of topics that will occur at various times during the winter session. Sometimes they will be additional morning sessions that you can choose if you want something different one week. Other times they will be afternoon sessions if you are interested in doing something entertaining after lunch. Some will be included in your registration, others may require a small fee. Here are some ideas about what you may see:

1. Brain Health Sessions: Take one of our brain health sessions and learn different brain hacks to improve your cognitive abilities. Get smarter and stronger.
2. Classic Films: Alexa may drop by an afternoon or two to share some classic films.
3. Invest your money well: Want to hear about CDs and other forms of investment? You may get the chance.
4. Older But Still Getting Wiser: We have several options for pop up workshops that can help you navigate the maze of information important as you age.

Look for more information on the website and every week during the winter session. We may even have some guest speakers for lunch! You never know what we will find.

Partners in Health

ANOTHER NEW IDEA

We are very excited about a potential new program we are tentatively calling “Partners in Health.” This is an innovative coordinated care/medical appointment accompaniment program providing support for older adults and their family members. Trained volunteers accompany older adults to their doctor appointments, and offer support to them before, during and after medical appointments. This program can provide support, comfort and confidence to the older adult, while at the same time providing good, accurate information to family members and to the adult themselves for later review.

We believe that this is a logical extension of our MET program, as we know some of our older adults could benefit from having another set of ears in the room when they are with their doctor. Partners in Health volunteers are different than our MET driver volunteers, although some may be interested in both. The program would offer extensive training, permissions and resources to the volunteers, and we believe that there are folks out there who might be interested in offering this needed support to our older adult community.

SOUND INTRIGUING? LOOKING FOR A CHANCE TO USE YOUR SKILLS AGAIN? Give us a call at 404-237-7307. You’ll be hearing more about this new opportunity very soon.

The 2018 Annual Appeal: Help Lifespan Bloom

This year we are asking you to support Lifespan as we work to explore new opportunities and cultivate new programs. Our cactus is ready to bloom out and we need your help to make it happen. You have been generous in your support of Lifespan all year long and we are both grateful and appreciative. As you think about your year end giving, please remember Lifespan and help us continue to serve older adults - those we know and those we are just meeting. You can help us with your financial contribution, but also with your time and talents.

Interested in teaching technology for older adults at Lifespan? Fill out the appeal form and let us know.

Interested in learning more about our Health Partner Program? Fill out the appeal form and let us know.

Interested in giving us some Pop Up Session topics? Fill out the appeal form and let us know.

Interested in supporting Lifespan with financial support? Fill out the appeal form and let us know.

Interested in including Lifespan in your estate? Fill out the appeal form and let us know.

Join us in helping Lifespan grow and bloom in 2019!
